Facebook vs Snapchat Advertising Spend

Facebook significantly outspent Snapchat across the available data, though the platforms cover different time periods and currencies, making direct comparison challenging.

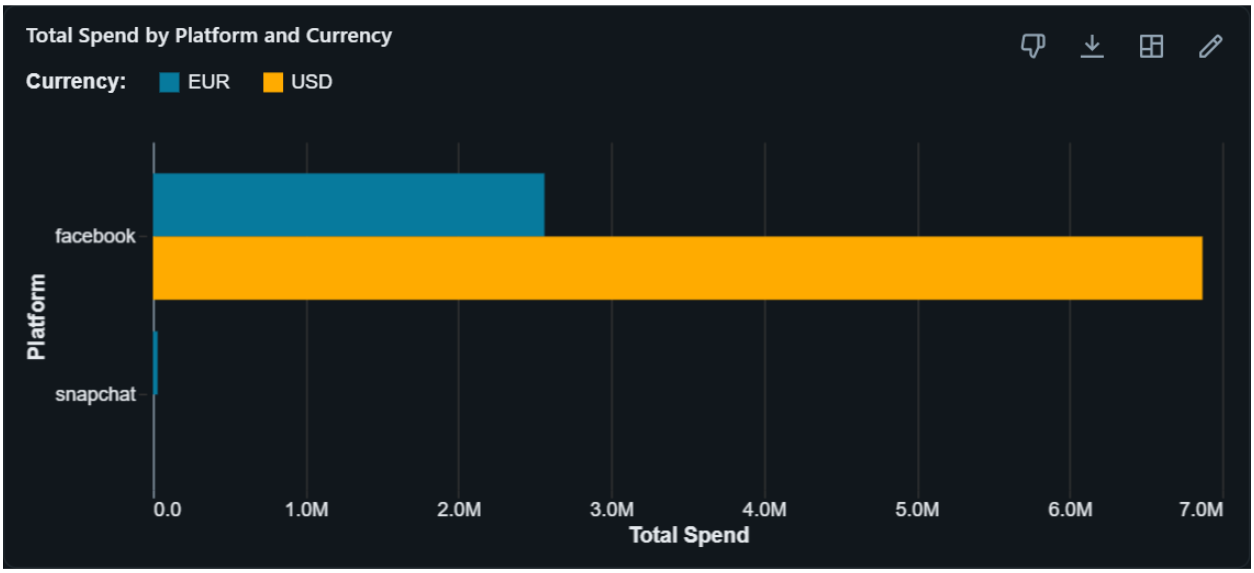
Spend Summary

Facebook (2025 data):

• USD: $6.87M spent across 365 days (Jan 1 - Dec 31, 2025)
• EUR: €2.56M spent across 260 days (Jan 1 - Sep 17, 2025)

Snapchat (2024 data):

• EUR: €30,530 spent across 133 days (Jan 1 - Dec 2, 2024)
• No USD spend recorded



Key Observations

• Facebook's USD spend ($6.87M) represents the largest investment, covering a full calendar year
• Facebook's EUR spend (€2.56M) is 84 times higher than Snapchat's EUR spend (€30,530)
• The platforms operate in different time periods—Facebook data is from 2025 while Snapchat data is from 2024—so year-over-year trends cannot be assessed
• Snapchat activity appears limited, with spend occurring on only 133 days and exclusively in EUR
